

PEST ALERTS

Bagrada Bug

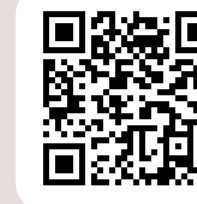

Brown Marmorated Stink Bug

ENVIRONMENTALLY SOUND GARDEN PRACTICES

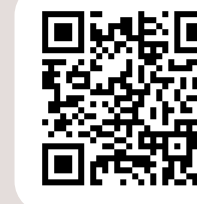

Beneficial Predators

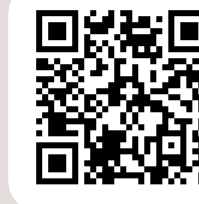

Common Garden Spiders

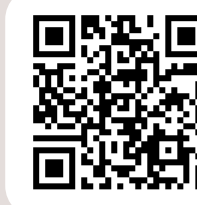

Garden Chemicals

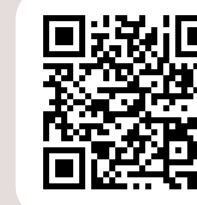

Keep Our Water Clean

Lady Beetles

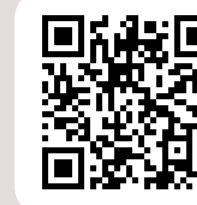

Landscape Design

Landscape Plants

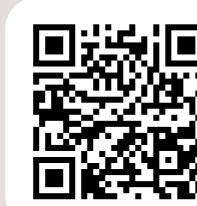

Lawn Fertilizing

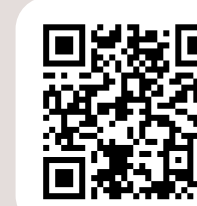

Lawn Watering

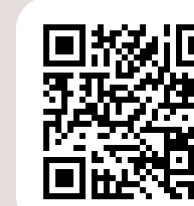

Less Toxic Insecticides

Parasites of Insect Pests

Weed Control Using Herbicides

What is IPM?

Quick Tips

What is IPM?

Integrated Pest Management (IPM) involves the use of environmentally sound and effective practices to keep pests from invading or damaging your home, garden, or landscape.

Monitoring for pests using a hand lens.

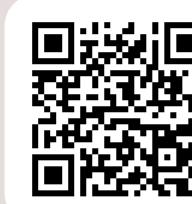

COMMON PESTS

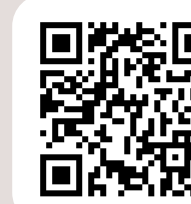

Ants

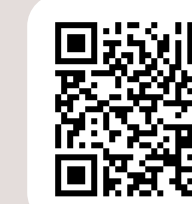

Aphids

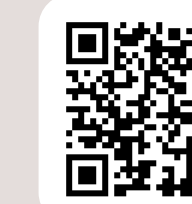

Asian Citrus Psyllid

Bark Beetles

Bed Bugs

Carpet Beetles

Cockroaches

Codling Moth

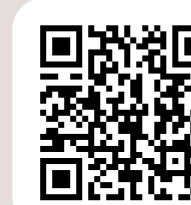

Damping-off

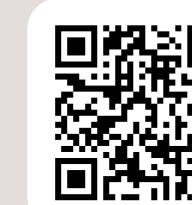

Deer

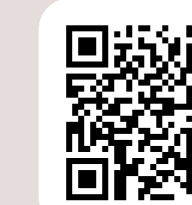

Earwigs

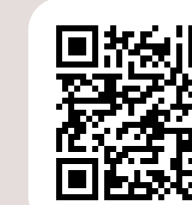

Fleas

Giant Whitefly

Gophers

Ground Squirrel

Head Lice

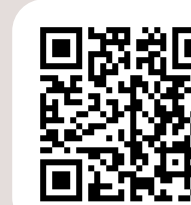

House Mouse

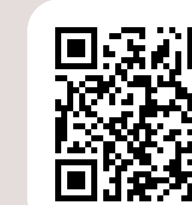

Lawn Insects

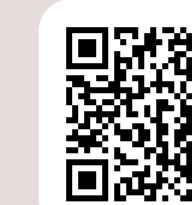

Leaf-feeding Caterpillars

Mealybugs

Mistletoes

Mosquitoes

Pantry Pests

Peach Leaf Curl

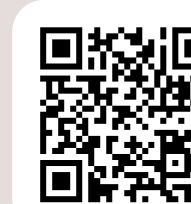

Phytophthora Root Rot

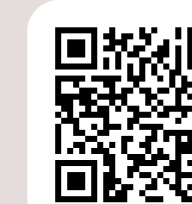

Powdery Mildew

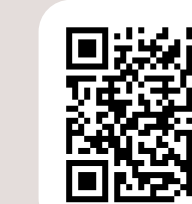

Psyllids

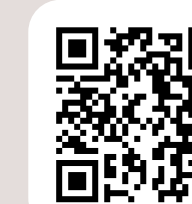

Rats

Scales

Snails and Slugs

Spiders

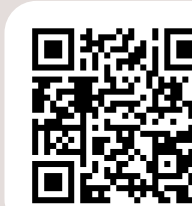

Spider Mites

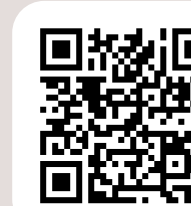

Termites

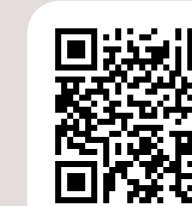

Thrips

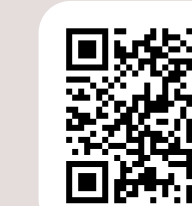

Tree Borers

Weeds in Landscapes

Weeds in Lawns

Whiteflies

Yellowjackets

